Chapter: Education
Rule: Distance Learning and
Courses on Contract

Effective: 7/30/08
Replaces: 4470.05
Dated: 10/10/1997

Purpose:

The Arizona Department of Juvenile Corrections (ADJC) shall allow students enrolled in grades nine through twelve to take distance learning on-site courses on contract from another educational institution toward completion of state graduation requirements and for students enrolled in college.

Rules:

1. The EDUCATION PRINCIPAL shall:
 - a. Assign a teacher to the role of community college liaison;
 - b. Ensure:
 - i. ADJC schools review the student's background information, interview the student, and have the student complete placement assessment necessary to determine eligibility for enrollment in distance learning courses or on-site courses on contract;
 - ii. The Liaison supervises the student's work, and that there is facility space for contract teachers;
 - iii. Credit toward state graduation requirements through distance learning coursework or on-site contract work is granted only if the student completes all course work and earns a passing grade from the educational institution.
